ZUNDER-OPPENHEIMER.

Last Evening.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zunder, 95 Bronson street, was the seens of a very brilliant social event yesterday afternoon and evening. The occasion was the wedding of their daughter Carrie to Mr. Gus Oppenheimer, and the reception tendered them by a large number of invited guests. The parlors were made beautiful with all that art and nature's choicest flowers could supply. The ceremony was performed'at 4 o'clock, Rabbi Bernard Cohn officiating. The ceremony was of the most impressive nature, and at its close the to occupy the best places with the groom were Mr. Louis Oppenheimer, of Cleveland, Mr. Zunder and his two sons, Aaron and Moses; with the bride, Miss Hattie Rosenfield, of Detroit, Mrs. Zunder, Miss Belle Zunder and Miss Ella Barth. The evening reception was largely attended, many friends of the bride and groom being present from abroad. Among this number were Mr. Isaac Rosenfield and daughter, Hattie, Mr. Reuben Rosenfield, Mr. Jacob Brown, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. L. Oppenheimer, of Cleveland, Mrs. D. Rodman, Mr. Joe Beck, of Lansing, Mr. Emanuel Danziger, of Chicago, Mrs. R. Vandorf, Mr. M. Zinder, of Muskegon. The repast was of the very finest, the tables being beautifully decorated with choice flowers, choice wines, fruits, meats, cakes, creams, etc., and everyone was well cared for. The young couple were the recipients of many elegant and costly presents, which to enumerate, with the names of the donors, would take a column's space in this paper. There was a complete outfit for the home of the bridal pair and enough gold and greenbacks for the establishment of a bank. There was a parlor suit, bed-room suit, range and fixtures, carpets, rugs, lace and raw-silk curtains, pictures, statuary, brackets, easels, bric-a-brac, etc., there was a beautiful German silver student lamp, a large bronze clock for the mantel and a smaller clock for the dining room; in the line of silver and cut-glass ware, there was everything needed for the table and sideboard, with many duplicates; two or three complete china tea sets, bedroom sets, dinner sets and an innumerable number of individual pieces. Mr. and Mrs. M. Zunder, of New Haven, Conn., sent a check for $100; Mr. and Mrs. E. Rosenfield, of St. Louis, Mo., a check for $35; Mr. S. Zunder, of New Haven, $25; Mr. and Mrs. D. Laudenbach, of New Haven, sent $10 in gold; Mr. and Mrs. B. Simon, same city, $10; I. S. Strauss, of Chicago, a dozen solid silver teaspoons, Mr. and Mrs. I. An Auctioneer Tells the Grounds of His Arrest.

Morris Marin, the auctioneer who was arrested yesterday for violating the ordinance governing the affairs of those who cry goods for sale, called at The Telegram office last evening and said the following was a true version of the affair: Jerome T. Rice purchased a number of articles of Marin for the sum of $15, and returning shortly after when a watch was up for sale asked permission of Marin to bid on the same, with the under-Marin to bid on the same, with the understanding that he might turn in his $15 worth of goods as part payment. Upon the watch being knocked off at $38 Rice asked for six months credit for the difference between the two sums. This credit Marin agreed to give safe. Hence the kick, and Marin says he will substantiate his tale on next Monday, when the case comes up in the Police Court.

The Unitarian Social.

The Unitarian Society's social, held last evening on Pearl street, was largely attended by old and young. Dr. Ross, director of the choir, assisted by Mr. Udell, Superintendent of the Sunday school, conducted very interesting singing exercises, in which a large number of children participated. The Sunday school already numbers upwards of one hundred and forty children, and the society in every respect is on a firm footing. The church building will be pushed to an early completion, as rapidly as the weather will permit. The pastor, Rev. Powers, is expected to return from his Eastern trip to-day.

AMUSEMENTS.

Janauschek at Powers's in the New Play "My Life."

The theatre was well filled last night, a fact which goes to show that the good attractions will draw, though there is a cry of hard times. The play "My Life" is interesting so far as it reveals Janauschek in a character and style of delineation that she has not displayed in parts she has been seen in here before. The construction of the play is not strong. It is weak and at times the plot is held by a thread so fine as to be almost indiscernable. It is too mystified to be popular, and the language at times is quite common-place, with a story both weak in moment. It was excellently acted, though in some of the characters there is scarcely and Mrs. Isaac Levi, large plate mirror and any object or impulse for action. The dual role enacted by Janauschek, was attractive insomuch as she was earnest, intense in rering the time she is in the part of the opera bouffe artist. Reading her part it would impress one as being far-fetched, yet this imperfection is concealed in the acting of the madame. Such are the impressions of the play upon its first hearing. The company appear in Kalamazoo this evening.

The Women's Relief Corps.

The women's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Custer Post, G. A. R., held their first meeting since their organization, yesterday in the Post room, in the Pierce Block. The corps now musters over twenty members, and six new ones were added yesterday. Regular meetings will be held every second Wednesday. Much interest is already manifested by the ladies in the work, as a large field of usefulness is thus opened to them among the survivors of the late war. An entertainment will be given in the near future to raise funds to assist in the charities of the order.
